Lots sold for $10 to $15, 25 cents each.

" " 30 to 50, 75 "
" " over 50, $1.00 each.

These assessments are strictly for work upon the cemetery grounds, the officers receiving no salaries.

The Two Villages.

Over the river on the hill,
Lieth a village white and still;
Over it sailing shadows go
Of soaring hawk and screaming crow;
All day long the forest trees
Shiver and whisper in the breeze,
And mountain grasses, low and sweet,
Grow in the middle of every street.

Over the river under the hill,
Lieth another village still;
There I see in the starry night
Twinkling stars of household light;
Fires that gleam from the smithy's door,
Mists that rise on the river shore;
And in its streets no grasses grow,
For the countless wheels that go to and fro.

In that village on the hill,
Never is sound of smithy or mill;
Its houses are thatched with grass and flowers,
Never a clock tells the passing hours;
Its marble doors are always shut,
You may not enter at hall or hut;
All the village are asleep,
Never again to moan or weep,
Never again in dreams to sigh,
Silent and idle and low they lie.

In that village under the hill,
When the nights are starry and still,
Many an anxious soul in prayer
Looks to that other village there,
And, moaning and sighing, longs to go
Up to that home from this below;
Longs to lie by the forest wild,
Whither have vanished wife and child;
And, praying, heareth this answer fall,
"Patience! that village shall hold ye all."
